

Travel Vocabulary

High-Intermediate

customs	the area in an airport or at the border where people claim any alcohol, tobacco, produce, etc. that they're bringing into a country baggage claim	the area at an airport, cruise ship terminal, etc. where people can get their luggage terminal	a building at an airport, bus station, train station, etc. where people get on and off the plane, bus, train, etc.
departure	leaving
boarding pass	the piece of paper that contains a passenger's gate number and time to get on a plane, boat, etc.
metal detector	the machine that tells a security officer if a person is concealing a weapon somewhere on their body destination	the arrival point board	to get on a plane, ship, train, bus, etc.
claim	to tell a customs agent if that person has any alcohol, tobacco, produce, etc. that he or she is bringing into a country route	the points along a journey